PANAMA CITY

United States Marines are Landed to Protect the Railway and American Citizens.

TRI COLOR WAVES

Revolutionists Adopt Red White and Blue as Their New Flag for Country.

Colon, Nov. 5.—With the firing of shells from a Colombian gunboat into rebellious Panama and the landing of United States marines in this city to protect the Panama railway connections, the struggle for the independence of the isthmus is under way. In Panama flies the flag of the new aspirant to nationality—the colors red, white and blue. Here in Colon the banner of Colombia still waves over the prefectures, but the city itself is with the revolutionists, and miniature Panama flags have already appeared in the streets.

Foreigners Seek Shelter. The city is in commotion. Foreign residents do not feel secure of their lives, and are flocking for shelter to the big railroad buildings.

Trains on the railroad are still running, but with the western terminus held by the insurgents and the eastern in control of the Colombian forces, trouble, seemingly, cannot long be averted. In its capacity as controller of the railroad, the United States force has decided to prevent the transport of Colombian troops westward to suppress the rebellion, an action that will be all in favor of the rebels. The commander of the Nashville has issued such an order.

In the excitement Wednesday afternoon the bluejackets from the Nashville quickly placed bales of cotton on the tops of freight cars, forming excellent barricades. Many of the citizens were armed with rifles and revolvers.

Say Canal is Assured. Several Americans and other foreigners took refuge on board the German steamer Markomannia. The opinion of everybody here is that the isthmian canal is now assured.

The bombardment of Panama by the gunboat Bogota is said to have done no damage to property, and to have cost no more than one life, that of a Chinaman.

The town's fort returned the fire. The revolutionists have gone steadily ahead since the proclamation Wednesday afternoon the act of independence was signed in the presence of the junta, the cabinet, and the municipal council.

Heads the Junta. The government is organized as follows:

The Revolutionary Junta—Jose Augustin Arjano, Frederico Boyd, and Tomas Arias.

The Provisional Cabinet—Minister of the Government, Eusebio Morales; Minister of Finance, Dr. Manuel Amador; Minister of Foreign Relations, F. V. Dela Espinosa; Minister of Justice, Carlos Mendoza; Minister of Public Instruction, N. Victoria; Minister of War and Marine, De Obarrio, Jr.

Arjano was formerly a Senator from Panama, and is local counsel for the Panama Railroad company. He is an influential conservative. Boyd is the son of an American and nephew of the late James Boyd, founder of the Panama Star and Herald. Arias was Secretary of Finance a few years ago. He belongs to the conservative party.

The American bluejackets have returned to the Nashville. This was the result of a proposal accepted by Colonel Torres, commanding the troops at Colon, that the marines would retire if he agreed to maintain order.

LEE TELLS OF BRIBERY
ON THE WITNESS STAND

Former Lieutenant Governor Admits Receiving Money for Share in Killing Measure.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 5.—In the trial of State Senator Farris on a charge of bribery former Lieutenant Governor John A. Lee took the stand. He said he asked Farris to help defeat the bill to repeal the law prohibiting the use of alum in baking powders. Farris said it could easily be done by holding the bill in committee, but that the bill was an important one for a certain baking powder company and "the boys" of the committee needed money. He wanted $7,000, of which $1,000 was to go to each of the six members of the committee on criminal jurisprudence of the senate and $1,000 to the senator who introduced the bill.

Lee arranged by telephone and telegraph, he said, with Daniel J. Kelley to get the money. A check for $8,500 was received by Lee and deposited in the American Exchange bank of St. Louis. The bill was defeated and he drew out $7,000 of the money and gave it to Senator Farris at the Laclede hotel. Farris divided the money

GREEN GOODS ROGUES
WORK NEW WRINKLE

Alleged Secret Service Operator Comes to Aid of Gang Who Try to Rob Their Victim.

New York, Nov. 5.—The good old green goods comedy reappeared with a new feature in the Jefferson Market police court when William Robertson, a planter, of Raleigh, N. C., appeared as complainant against Fred G. Wilson and Edward Williams.

Reading an advertisement in a home newspaper that a good investment was to be had, the Southerner answered it and got one of the familiar circulars that told him how he could get $3,000 in United States Treasury notes for $300. Wilson, the planter said, met him in Jersey City and brought him to a room in a house in West Twenty-first street.

At the end of his talk there with Wilson and three other men, the planter refused to live up to his money. Then, he declared, they leaped upon him and tried to take his money forcibly. The Southerner whipped out his revolver, and was about to obliterate the green goods men when a fifth man sprang into the room and said:

"Aha! I have you at last," waving his revolver at the four crooks. Then to the planter: "I'm a secret-service man. I've been shadowing these fellows, and now I've caught them in the act."

The secret service man told him, Robertson says, to wait until he came back. He waited a long while; then he went to the West Twentieth street police station and entered his complaint.

Wilson and Williams were arrested later in Sixth avenue. They were held in $2,000 bail.

MARKET TALK ON
PRICES TODAY

Wheat and Corn Discussed Just as the Market Closed at One O'clock.

Two features in wheat today were the early weakness in December and strength in May. There was heavy selling of December by a house acting for the northwest and southwest. The buying by local traders, shorts and some commission houses caused a reaction and nearly all of the loss was recovered. The close was steady and a little higher; cables were lower all around.

Corn. Corn shorts and commission houses were good buyers of corn today, both December and May were in good demand and prices ruled higher. The close was firm, selling principally by small traders. Cornstock sold early but was a large buyer later. Strong cables and small counter offerings disappointing; husking returns were cause of strength. The Ohio report was bullish. Cash demand was fair.

WHITAKER AFTER
UNCLEAN SHOPS

Secretary Of the Barbers' Commission Swears Out Warrants For The Arrest Of Milwaukee Barbers.

That the new barbers' commission appointed by the governor last spring and which has worked with such untiring effort at three dollars a day during the hot summer months mean business is illustrated by the crusade which Secretary Whitaker is waging on the Milwaukee shops, which do not live up to the little rules and regulations prepared by the board for their governing. Secretary Whitaker went into Milwaukee on Tuesday and began his investigation. Already one barber has been arrested for violating the law passed by the last legislature and six other shops are under suspicion of having done likewise.

STATE NOTES

Miss Florence Chittenden, daughter of Postmaster T. S. Chittenden of Racine, was thrown from her horse last evening and sustained a fractured collar-bone.

The state bank of Montello, which has been in charge of State Banking Commissioner Bergh since the discovery of the shortage of Cashier J. H. Lelmer of the Princeton state bank, will resume business tomorrow. The Lelmer paper of $19,000 carried by the bank has been made good by the stockholders.

Mrs. Venell Dvoracek of Caledonia, searching for her husband with a lighted lantern at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, found him hanging from the limb of a willow tree in their back yard, dead.

While driving with a load of hay on West Mifflin street in Madison, William Sykes, a farmer, accidentally ran over William J. Dohr, the infant son of Hugo Dohr, crushing his skull and killing him almost instantly. Sykes has not been held for the accident.

Three members of the Moseley educational commission, Prof. Joan Rhys of Oxford university, L. Miam Jones of the British house of commons, and Principal H. K. Reichel of London, were in Madison yesterday as guests of the university. The work of the College of Agriculture attracted their particular attention. The commission consists of twenty-nine members and was sent to this country by the English millionaire, Moseley, to make a study of American educational methods.

SITUATION VERY
CRITICAL TODAY

COLOMBIAN GENERAL THREATENS TO ATTACK THE REBELS.

WOULD BURN COLON

American Citizens Have Appealed to Gun Boat Nashville for Protection.

(Special By Scripps-McIntae.) Panama, Nov. 5.—The situation on the isthmus this morning is most serious. Gen. Torres, commander of the Colombian troops at Colon has refused to follow the example at Panama and secede from the Colombian government. He even threatens to send troops against Panama. If the latter city does not surrender, it is reported the Colombian soldiers at Colon have threatened to burn the city and murder all the citizens sympathizing with revolutionists as well as all Americans in the city. The latter have appealed for protection from the gunboat Nashville, which is in Colon harbor.

The gunboats Padilla and Chucito, in service of the insurgents, left today in search of the Colombian gunboat, Bogota, which fired on Panama Tuesday.

HALLOWEEN PRANK
MUST BE PAID FOR.

Afton Boys Will Reimburse Thomas Tracey For Top Buggy Left On Railroad Tracks.

The boys of Afton and vicinity varied the usual Halloween pranks this year by a piece of work that was little short of criminal, and that was the placing of a good top buggy, belonging to Thomas Tracey, on the main line of the Chicago & North Western railway, where it was struck and totally demolished by a freight train early Sunday morning. Such work as this not only destroys valuable property, but endangers human life as well, for smaller things than this have caused disastrous and costly wrecks on the rail. The deed was not prompted by malice, but was simply the thoughtless act of midnight revelers, who will now pay for their fun by reimbursing Mr. Tracey for the loss of his buggy.

MORE FARMERS GET 'PHONES

Rock County Company Making Extensions to Emerald Grove.

The Rock County Telephone company is constructing several new lines into the country towns. The poles have been set and the linemen are at work on one system which is being built towards Emerald Grove and a number of the farmers along the route have signified their intention of becoming patrons. Another new branch goes out Ruger avenue and then southward. The agriculturists in and around Shopers have petitioned the company to extend a line to their town and this will probably be done.

MORE BEETS THAN WANTED

Factory is Crowded With the Crop This Week.

Walter Helms, the Janesville agent for the Menominee Sugar Beet company, is not shipping beets to the factory this week as the concern has more than it can handle for several days. The tracks are blocked with the loaded cars. The temporary surplus is being dumped into pits in the factory yard, until they can be used. It will be several days before the plant will be able to catch up with the supply.

Father of School Teacher Dies: Dr. Thayer, father of Miss Allie Thayer, who last winter taught in the domestic department in the Janesville high school, died early in the week at his home on Indiana avenue, Chicago. Miss Thayer will be remembered by many in this city. She is now in Marquette.

STRIKE FEVER IS
RAMPANT AGAIN

CHICAGO WILL SOON BE IN THE THROES.

FORTY THOUSAND AFFECTED

Even Street Railway Employees are Voting on the Question Striking.

(Special By Scripps-McIntae.) Chicago, Nov. 5.—The first of a series of strikes which may involve nearly forty thousand Chicago workmen, was inaugurated this morning when eleven hundred tanners and curriers in the employ of the American Hide & Leather company struck for a ten-hour day. The second and more serious movement began when 2,500 employees of the Chicago City railway began casting ballots on the proposition of a general strike. The result is confidently expected to tie up every main and cross town line on the south side. Tonight a special meeting of the packing trades council is to be held to take action on the proposition of a general tie up in the stock yards. This would affect 35,000 people.

QUIET WEDDING
HELD WEDNESDAY

Miss Margaret Fitzgerald and Philip Sheridan Were Quietly Married. In Rockford Yesterday.

Miss Margaret Fitzgerald and Mr. Philip Sheridan of this city were married at St. James church in Rockford yesterday. Miss Margaret Morrison and Mr. John Hemming accompanied the couple to the Illinois city and witnessed the ceremony. An elaborate dinner was served to the party at the Nelson House immediately after the ceremony after which they returned to this city. Both the bride and groom are well known in Janesville and the sudden wedding is a surprise to their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan will be at home at the new home on Chatham street where they will receive the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

Fireman is Killed.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 5.—A local passenger train from Charlotte to Chester, S. C., on the Southern railway, ran into a work train near Chester. The negro fireman on the passenger train was killed and several passengers were badly shaken up.

Lively Runaway: Two farmers' teams, frightened by paper blowing near the new post office building, ran away yesterday noon and were not captured until they had demolished the rigs they were attached to and injured themselves very badly. One rig, belonging to Mr. Wilkie of Shopers, was badly smashed up, and the other, a two-horse wagon, ran as far as the Phelps farm before they were captured. Both accidents were sensational in nature owing to the fact they started from the same place at the same time.

Goes to Winter Quarters: The old cannon which has been in the possession of the city for many years, was recently hauled into the basement of the city hall by Janitor Phillips and will be stored until some emergency calls for its presence. During Mr. Phillips' spare time he intends to paint the weapon and put it into serviceable condition. If another big gun can be secured, there is talk of organizing an artillery platoon to be composed entirely of city hall officials. The other day a number were discussing as to what the origin of the gun really was. Some one said that the boys used to celebrate Fourth of July with it long ago, but that they celebrated in a different way now.

CHARGE BANKER'S SON
WITH MURDERING WIFE

Woman He Married Under Duress Dies Suddenly, and He is Said to Have Given Her Drugs.

Charleston, Ill., Nov. 5.—William K. Honn of Ashmore, ten miles east of this city, is under bonds of $7,000 to answer to a charge of murder.

Honn is charged with being responsible for the death of his wife, whom he married under duress. He is the son of W. T. Honn, president of the Corn Exchange bank of Ashmore. Among his youthful playmates was Mahela Galbraith, daughter of J. N. Galbraith, a farmer.

When the young couple reached years of maturity Honn promised to make the young woman his wife, but postponed marriage until she became weary of unfulfilled pledges and invoked the aid of the law. She got a warrant for his arrest, charging him with being responsible for her condition. This step was taken Jan. 22, 1903. The same night County Clerk Rarnin was roused from his bed to issue a license for the marriage of the couple. Less than an hour afterward Honn and Miss Galbraith were married by Police Magistrate Burke of this city.

March 12 Mrs. Honn was taken sick suddenly and her death resulted in a few hours. The physician who was called in said death was due to mercurial gangrene.

The woman's father collected evidence and when the grand jury met here laid the case before it. The result was the returning of two indictments, charging Honn with having given the drugs that killed his wife.

TRAIN TEARS
INTO CATTLE

Eight Steers Killed in Railroad Crossing Accident. Owned by Twin Grove Farmer.

A St. Paul engine, pulling four coaches full of people, crashed into a bunch of fourteen steers at a crossing three miles east of Monroe yesterday morning, killing eight of the animals outright and seriously injuring several others. The train was going at a sixty-mile gait and passed the scene of the accident a mile and a half before it could be brought to a stop. The front of the engine and steps and sides of the coaches presented a gory spectacle to the passengers as they alighted to ascertain the cause of the stop. The pilot of the locomotive was bent, some of the ironwork twisted and the frame out of shape. The steps of some of the coaches were broken, bent and sprinkled with hair and blood.

The animals were owned by David Thorpe, a tenant on the Chadwick farm in Twin Grove and had just been purchased by him at the Illinois Central stockyards. He had expected to be able to drive the animals over the track before train time.

QUAKES OVER
CENTRAL SOUTH

Trembling of Earth Alarms Tenants of High Buildings in Many Cities.

TWO SHOCKS FELT

Extended from Granada Mississippi to Quincy Illinois in a Direct Line.

(Special By Scripps-McIntae.) St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Astronomer Hicks, who predicted yesterday's earthquake says all indications point to a recurrence of the disturbances in St. Louis within the next forty-eight or sixty hours but that they will be much more severe than those of Wednesday.

St. Louis Alarmed. The entire city felt two distinct earthquake shocks were felt in St. Louis Wednesday. The first shock was five seconds in duration and the second lasted perhaps two minutes. The shock was felt in the large downtown office buildings, and the rattling of windows and the rocking of buildings frightened many timid persons.

The federal building, which is erected upon piles driven to a depth of nearly 100 feet into quicksand, was shaken from the bottom to the top. The building fairly trembled. On the third floor Judge Adams, sitting on the bench, was visibly swayed.

Officials Are Jarred.

United States District Attorney D. P. Dyer and Horace Dyer were also badly shaken. Others in the room, including Assistant United States Attorney Bert Norton, Attorney Fred Lehmann, Edward Fitzgerald, William Nall, United States Marshal Morsey, George Hald and William Morgan said they received shocks more or less severe.

Mr. Hald was at the telephone when the first shock made the building tremble. The phone circuit was broken, and he had scarcely dropped the receiver when the second shock was felt.

Reports from various parts of the city indicate that the seismic wave was severe, but no damage has been reported.

Tenants Rush to Streets.

Some of those in the high buildings hurried to the ground before their windows ceased to rattle. At the store of R. H. Harris, where the shock was plainly felt, many became frightened and rushed out into the street.

Frank Buffman, manager of the telephone exchange here, says the building in which his office is located rocked, and the chandeliers in his office swung perceptibly. Said Mr. Buffman: "I received a message from Bowling Green saying that the shock dropped the shutters on our telephone apparatus there. A farmer called up from near Clarksville and said all the dishes in his house had been shaken off the shelves."

Memphis and Louisville.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 5.—Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here. No damage resulted in Memphis or vicinity, but the occupants of the principal office buildings made hasty exits to the streets. Many buildings swayed, and in the Business Men's club the chandeliers were broken. Reports from surrounding towns tell of earthquake shocks, but no serious damage is reported. The vibrations were felt as far south as Grenada, Miss. Chattanooga reports a severe shock on Lookout Mountain. Similar reports come from Columbia, Tenn., and Nashville and Owensville, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here shortly after noon Wednesday, but no damage was done. At Evansville, Ind., a slight shock was felt, but it was not sufficient to cause any alarm.

Covers Southern Illinois.

The earthquake was felt over a wide area in Illinois, the shocks being particularly severe in the southern portion. At Cairo the first shock was 12:14 o'clock and the second at 1:15. The first was the longer, but the second was more severe. Many persons rushed out of their homes badly frightened. The taller buildings downtown were quickly depopulated. The vibration was from east to west and was preceded by a peculiar sound like an explosion.

At Belleville the vibrations lasted from eight to ten seconds each and were perceptible in all sections of the city. The shocks were severe, but no damage was done.

In Peoria the quake was more perceptible in the river districts. No damage was done to property. At Richview the shock lasted but a few seconds. Two shocks were felt at Carbondale. In Decatur the shock was felt at 12:20 p. m.

The pope yesterday received in private audience Father Denifle, keeper of the archives of the vatican, who presented the pontiff with the first copy of his book entitled "Luther and Lutheranism," which is expected to provoke great discussion among Protestants.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Thursday, November 5, 1863.—Last Tuesday was a great day for snake hunting and killing.

How the Soldiers Vote.—The 30th regiment gave Lewis a unanimous vote, except company B, which gave Lewis 26 and Palmer 18. Eighteen votes in an entire regiment! How flattering!

A One Thousand Dollar Bid.—Mr. D. W. Phillips, of the well known insurance house of B. W. Phillips & Co., offers one thousand dollars as a starting bid for the original manuscript of President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, now in possession of the managers of the fair.

The last accounts from Vallandigham represent him as yet "waiting and watching over the border." If he is "watching" for the returns of Tuesday's election, he will pray for the refuge of Dixie where neither the voice of northern freemen nor the process of northern courts can reach him.

Partisan Madness.—Reckless as the Chicago Times has ever been in its hostility to the government, bold and daring as have been its denunciations of specific measures of the administration, nothing has exceeded, if equaled, the following in its editorial columns yesterday:

"The original proclamation of the emancipation is now in this city. It is to be sold by the managers of the northwestern fair for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers. There is a dramatic justice in such an appropriation of it, albeit the relief it will afford will be but as the staunching of a single wound in comparison with the torrents of blood it has caused to flow. For every letter in its composition a thousand lives have been offered. For every sentence, there is today desolation in countless homes scattered across a continent. Every declaration it embodies is a record of perjury against its author. Every pledge it contains is a pledge against the life of the nation and a defiant insult to the memories, sacrifices and statehood of the illustrious dead who founded the nation. 'Steno' he couched in these worthless lines; perished Venice when she was 'Queen of the Adriatic' and centuries of victory and successful commerce had filled her palaces with wealth and consolidated her power. A vulgar jest, as brainless, if not as unprincipled as Steno, has perpetrated a slander in this proclamation upon the memories of dead more noble than the wife of Fallero, was virtuous and pure, and placed in jeopardy by the act a republic with a history more resplendent and hopes more glorious than ever opened before the imagination of the most daring and ambitious Venetian. Then bid for the proclamation! Bid high! It should at least bring as much as the household gods of the late famed Magdalen when exposed for sale in London. Notoriety is fame, and the unparalleled infamy of the proclamation has at least made it notorious."

Coming Attractions.

People go to the theatre to be entertained. Gloomy plays, except in rare instances are not favorably received.

THE ROMANTIC COMEDY-DRAMA DOWN BY THE SEA

received. Audiences, especially women audiences, like to have their feelings wrought upon to a certain extent; they even enjoy an opportunity to shed a few tears. But they also like to have their tears followed by laughter, they want the sun to come out between the clouds. Since "East Lynne", there has probably fences than ever before, the capacity of the theatre being tested in every city fortunate enough to secure this remarkably successful drama. Under Southern Skies" is to appear in Myers Grand, November 10, and the indications are that it will be witnessed by a large and fashionable audience.

Unusual interest is centered in the production at the Myers Grand next Saturday Matinee and Night of the romantic comedy drama, "Down by the Sea," a play that has achieved a remarkable run of twelve years in England. For its presentation in this country the story has been revised and Americanized, and the action now transpires on the Long Island coast instead of the English. "Down by the Sea" is in four acts and the situations are so numerous that the attention of the audience is held by the series of surprising events that closely follow one upon the other until the final fall of the curtain. The characters are not overdrawn although they are original in conception. There is the young schoolmaster, the village parson, the inn-keeper, the old fisherman, the young boat builder, the city gambler, the country sports, the boatmen and their help, the keeper of the light, the life-saver, the fisherman's daughter, the German servant, third season, playing to larger and not been a play produced which draws women to witness it in such crowds as does Lottie Blair Parker's drama of love among the blossoms of "Under Southern Skies". There is something about the beautiful stage settings, youthful, summery dresses, crowds of gay young folks, Halloween tricks, Jack-O-Lantern dance and touching love scenes that enchant the young, who are in the heyday of their own pleasures, and fascinate their elders by carrying them back to their own merry days—sometimes so long past or so overgrown with worldly cares and worries that they have been forgotten until suddenly brought to vivid remembrance by the life-like scenes of "Under Southern Skies". All women love the play, and men enjoy it, so it is not strange that it is now in its the gossiping neighbor, and last but not least the baby. The most prominent in the cast is Fannie Curtis, who interprets the part of Blanche Preston. Miss Curtis is a local favorite, and her work on the stage is well known to theatregoers. It is a difficult role for so youthful a woman, and although the character involves almost every human passion, Miss Curtis makes every point score, and, by her sincerity and lack of self-consciousness, easily carries off the honors of the performance. The company is unusually large and talented and the scenic effects are really gorgeous and every stage setting in new and magnificent, particularly the third act setting, illustrating an electric storm at sea. The engagement is for Saturday only.

COUNTY NEWS

EAST PORTER

East Porter, Nov. 2.—The farmers appreciate the fine weather we have been having for the past two weeks as it has enabled them to get along nicely with their work. We are glad to see Mrs. A. C. Reid out riding last Monday.

Mrs. Ed. Jensen returned home last Saturday after three weeks visit with her sister in Stoughton. Everybody come to the Literary society next Friday night and hear the debate. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Pearl who used to live in this part of the town extend sympathy to them in the loss of their 15 year old daughter, Stella, whose death was caused by poison which she took herself. Such a death is doubly sad.

Choir practice at Mr. Aaron Wallin's next Saturday night.

Mrs. Sarah Scofield and daughter visited at Mr. John Thomson's last Sunday.

Wm. Gardiner delivered a fine bunch of hogs to P. C. Brown of Edgerton last Tuesday.

Wedding bells will ring in the near future and then, what then? Why another now empty house in Fulton village will be occupied, which fact we are glad to note.

WEST PORTER

West Porter, Nov. 3.—Miss Alice Julseth was a guest of her sister Mrs. H. Brunzell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blackmun, of East Union visited at C. W. Sperry's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Barnard, of Evansville were Sunday callers at John Sperry's.

Mrs. Chas. Sperry and daughter, Etta, and Mrs. C. W. Sperry were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hoag, of Fulton Friday last.

Mr. W. M. Tolles and son, Pliny, and Leroy Robinson were Cooksville callers Sunday.

Mr. Pliny Tolles attended Band practice at Evansville Monday evening.

Mrs. C. Sperry and daughter, were guests of her sister, Mrs. Josiah Sperry of Evansville Saturday.

Chris. Julseth is busily engaged in digging a cellar for a new house which he expects to erect in the spring.

House cleaning and husking corn now seems to be the order of the day.

Mr. Harold Brunzell has erected a fine new addition to his house.

A few from this vicinity attended the football game held in Cooksville Sunday.

C. Julseth made a business trip to Stoughton one day last week.

LA PRAIRIE

La Prairie, Nov. 2.—Halloween was observed in many local houses. The Mission Sunday school held its last Sunday service last Sunday afternoon.

Everybody is invited to attend the social Wednesday evening at the Grange hall.

William Gleason finished husking his crop of 45 acres of corn last Wednesday.

Mrs. Sophia Brown is not gaining as fast as her many friends would be pleased to have her.

C. H. Heck of Edgerton is one of the leading corn huskers in this locality.

Those who can plainly see that we shall enjoy F. R. D. and telephone say that an electric line would place them in as pleasant a situation as though they lived in the heart of Chicago.

If there is any truth in the saying a month that comes in like a lamb goes out like a lion. We must surely expect to see the lion the last of this month.

This locality was well represented at the rink opening.

LIMA

Lima, Nov. 2.—About thirty young people surprised Mabel Boyd, at her home, last Saturday evening. It was Halloween, so they first had an old fashioned husking bee on the barn floor. Only a few "red" ears were found. At 10 o'clock, they were all taken to the woods, nearby, where a bonfire was lighted and a kettle hung over it, in which coffee was made. They all sat in a circle round the fire, in true Indian style and partook of the supper of "wieners," roasted on long willow splits, sandwiches, cookies, pumpkin pie, coffee, served in tin cups, and apples.

After telling ghost stories, the peace pipe was passed around, after which all rose, joined hands and danced round the fire as a fitting end to the occasion.

Supt. Antisdel visited the school in the Alexander district, Monday afternoon.

A few from here attended the Halloween party at Wm. Armstrong's, last Friday evening. A very enjoyable time was had. Several ghosts appeared during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McDonald called at Mrs. N. Freeman's Sunday afternoon.

OLD AND NEW WAY

Hyomel the Latest Scientific Discovery for the Cure of Catarrh.

The discovery of Hyomel has wrought a wonderful change in the treatment of catarrh.

Prior to three years ago the medicine ordinarily employed in the cure of this disease were nauseating drugs and worthless tonics, in some instances they benefited, but the improvement was not lasting.

With Hyomel you take into the air passages of the throat and head a balsamic air that goes to the minutest cells, effectually killing all germs and microbes of catarrh. It enters the blood with the oxygen, killing the germs in the blood and restores health to the whole system. Many astonishing testimonials have been received from those who have been cured by Hyomel.

A complete outfit costs but $1.00, and includes an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomel for several weeks treatment.

Perhaps the strongest evidence that can be given to doubters, is the fact that the People's Drug Co. and King's Pharmacy have so much faith in Hyomel that they sell every package under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

Now is the time to begin the use of Hyomel.

MORE DREYFUS CASE IN SIGHT

War Minister Andre Favors Revision of Court-Martial's Sentence.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Presse says the War Minister Andre as a result of the inquiry which he has made into the Dreyfus affair has informed the cabinet that in his opinion the sentence of the Rennes court-martial should be revised. The war minister is also said to have asked for the views of his colleagues on the subject, but they were unable to come to an agreement.

Hound Dies After Winning.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 5.—In the last event of the Waterloo races at the American coursing meet the Countess Eve, owned by D. K. Carter of Cottonwood Falls, Kas., dropped dead with the hare in her mouth just as she had won the Waterloo purse.

Earthquake in England.

Portsmouth, England, Nov. 5.—Portsmouth was visited by an earthquake shock. The disturbance did not continue for any length of time, however, and no particular damage was done.

MONETARY CONDITIONS.
Henry Claws, the Wall Street bank er says in his last letter that the monetary conditions are more satisfactory than expected six months ago. A bad bank statement may occur this week owing to heavy currency shipments for crop purposes and to strengthen St. Louis institutions, and the absence of concern among bank officials is noticeable. The banks lost about $14,000,000 during the week and this caused some fear of a hurry in money rates. Ordinarily we should be importing gold at this season but backward crops or backward exports and large imports, coupled with comparatively easy money markets on this side, have delayed gold shipments from Europe here. Towards the end of the week there was a sharp break in sterling exchange, so that gold imports appeared more imminent, especially in view of the easier conditions in the foreign markets, funds being abundant at Paris.

Close watch must be kept upon the strained condition of affairs in the Far East for effect upon international markets. Immediate trouble between Russia and any other power seems unlikely; but it must be remembered that Russia has embarked upon a policy of government industrialism from which she cannot withdraw. Her necessities compel her to retain Manchuria as a market for her surplus manufactures, and her inability to compete with foreign nations will oblige her to resort to a policy of commercial exclusion. It is just here where international friction and jealousy begin. If Russia is allowed to absorb Manchuria, as she has already practically done, then Japan, Germany, France and England will each want its share of land or trade, and the long dreaded dismemberment of China will thus begin. The United States with larger coast line and larger interests in the Pacific than any other power is still a passive factor in one of the great world movements. No country has greater future commercial interests in the opening of the Far East than the United States, and with such mighty self-interests at work it is folly to predict results. The struggle between policies of closed and open markets, however, must come, and it may involve some of the great powers unless Russia backs down. At best it can only be deferred, and it behooves the prudent to watch events in that part of the world more closely.

Discrimination is still the order of the day on the stock market. Many good dividends paying stocks have been almost cut in two, and correspondingly less money being required to carry them speculation is likely to be encouraged thereby. Confidence is gradually reviving owing to the belief that liquidation is about over, and the satisfactory fashion in which recent stocks have been stood is practical evidence of the soundness of this belief. The outlook, therefore, is for a more active and stronger market except for the industrials. These are hampered by developments in iron and copper issues, particularly the weakness in iron and steel products. Outside of these influences the situation remains hopeful and the great railroad systems continue on their prosperous career without interruption. Railroad managers, however, are awaiting with keen interest the Northern Securities decision from the Supreme Court in December, and are already reported as seeking other methods of merging in event of an unfavorable decision.

WAR ONCE MORE.

The eagles of war have once more perched themselves on the isthmus of Panama and rebellion and civil war threaten Colombia's most precious possession—the state of Panama. In her greed for millions Colombia has evidently overplayed her hand and the chosen ground for the Panama canal is likely to slip out from under its control with less trouble than the schemers of the Colombian senate took to turn down Uncle Sam's offer for the right to dig the big Panama canal. Ever since the days of Balboa the Spanish adventurer who first saw the Pacific ocean after a tedious voyage across the Isthmus down to the present time it has been the scene of bloodshed and rebellion. Sir Henry Morgan pirate and cut throat even turned his eyes upon this pearl of the Antilles and sought to capture and loot it. Long a Spanish city and stronghold Panama revolted with the rest of the Spanish American colonies and became a part of Colombia. Apparently it has been ignored and its council and benefits have passed by for the satisfaction of the greed of other portions of Colombia. Perhaps the residents of that little strip across the isthmus have been urged on by a desire to annex themselves to the great Uncle Sam who guards the western continent from foreign invasion. If this be so the sending of the warships to the scene of the conflict may be explained and we shall gain our canal and territory at the same time.

THE ELECTION.

The result of the elections last Tuesday did not occasion surprise. The spasms of reform in New York, spent itself and the city has settled back to democratic, or Tammany rule, with reduced majorities. But for the fight put up by Mayor Low, McLean would have been elected by at least 80,000 which is the normal democratic majority in the city.

The state of Ohio rebuked Johnson and Johnsonism in a manner that the adherents of that faction will not soon forget. Johnson did not represent democracy any more than does Bryan. He is a visionary reformer of pronounced type and the political life of this class of men is always short. The state will reelect Hanna to the senate, and give Roosevelt a rousing majority next year.

Iowa is in line with no perceptible split in the party. The outlook all along the line is encouraging, and there is not question about results next year.

Tammany won out in New York City and the spasmodic desire for reform has passed by until another time when the city becomes as corrupt as it was during the last Tammany period of control.

Tom Johnson over in Ohio, must feel as though he had not run at all after the decided whipping he got from his own party. But then it must be remembered that William Jennings Bryan tried to help him and this is the result.

Perhaps our navy may have a chance for a little target practice this year after all. The Turks disappointed them but Columbia may not be so prudent.

Uncle Sam may have his hands full if he really means to annex Panama. It would be a worse job than trying to initiate the Sultan of Sulu with the cocktail.

If Columbia decides discretion is the better part of valor she may be able to save the rest of her little republic intact.

Iowa distinctly told the world at large that they were republicans.

PRESS COMMENT.

Washington Times: They are making a fuss now about using children as dummy directors in New Jersey. It really seems unjust. Is the glass blower to be allowed to bring up his child to his own trade, beginning at a tender age, and the capitalist restrained from doing the same thing?

Chicago Record-Herald: Mr. Gorman has come out in opposition to the negro for the purpose of booming himself for the presidency. But this might have been expected of Gorman.

Chicago News: According to the Mississippi Valley Medical association's estimate the last Fourth of July celebration cost the nation 400 lives. The American public can now defy the world to produce another nation which pays such a price for its "patriotism."

New York World: Joseph Farrell was a motorman in Pittsburgh until he "went on strike". His "stroke of work" was to throw a stone through a window in New York city hall because there is something to eat in a jail. The old job was better.

Washington Times: The opponents of football as a part of the college course never seem to consider the fact that the football player would probably never be valedictorian, anyway.

Omaha Bee: Massachusetts democrats are endeavoring to resurrect the issue of imperialism. Massachusetts democrats should stick themselves with a pin and wake up.

New York Tribune: American "ready made" clothing is the latest Yankee notion to be put before the English public. Will the universal "hand-me-down," like the quick lunch counter, be another insidious agent in the overthrow of British institutions?

BIG SALE AT LITTLE FARM

MANY BLOODED SHORTHORNS
GO UNDER THE HAMMER.

PRICES AVERAGED GOOD

Several Hundred Present from all
Paris of State, and a Number from Other Sections.

One of the largest cattle sales which has occurred in Rock county in some time took place at the Walter Little stock farm, six miles west of Janesville yesterday afternoon. Prominent stockmen and farmers from Dane, Green, Rock and other counties were present besides a large number from other sections of the state and out of it. Forty-two head were offered and among them were some fine specimens of the Shorthorn type.

Good Stock Sold
The sale began shortly after one o'clock and long before the hour there were crowds of people on the place, examining the stock and inspecting the buildings of the farm which is one of the best in the county. Among the cattle listed for sale were twenty-five cows, and heifers with calf at side by Clifford Clay, 152044 or Demonstrator, 3rd, 188,353. Well Known Auctioneers.

There were a number of choice young bulls of very good quality ranging in age from ten to twenty-three months. A certified copy of registry was furnished with each lot and practically every animal sold yesterday was of registered stock. The auctioneers were Col. R. W. Barclay and W. T. Dooley. The prices secured were considered very fair and in a few cases were excellent. The buyers from outside of the state bought the highest priced specimens without exception.

A Few High-Priced
The most paid for any one animal was for a fine heifer and calf, the consideration was $150. Some other heifers and yearling bulls went for prices nearly as good as the above, but part of the stock did not appear to be in as good condition as the majority of the animals offered for sale. A buyer from St. Paul was present and took away some good heifers.

Several Hundred Present
The young bulls were especially fine and the bidding was lively for the different lots. Altogether there were three or four hundred present and between two and three dozen well known buyers from outside the state. The sale continued the greater part of the afternoon, and was considered a success by those in charge.

PARLIN HAS MADE THE SCHEDULES

High School Football Championships
Will Be Decided In The Following Manner.

C. C. Parlin, chairman of the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic association today made public the high school football teams that are in the competition for the high school championship, and the schedule of games as far as arranged.

Merrill, Tomah, Kaukauna, Eau Claire, Marinette, Janesville, and Fort Atkinson are the schools named whose teams are entitled to contest for the honor.

The games arranged for next Saturday are Tomah vs. Eau Claire, Kaukauna vs. Marinette, and Janesville vs. Fort Atkinson.

The four undefeated teams will meet Nov. 14, and the championship will be decided Nov. 21.

The rules governing the football contests for the state championship of the W. I. A. A. are as follows:

The Rules
The semi-finals between the schools representing the different sections will be held Nov. 14.

The winners of these semi-finals shall play the final contest on Nov. 21 or Thanksgiving day, as they may elect.

The teams for the semi-finals will be selected by the board.

When two teams are selected for a semi-final or final they may make arrangements as to place, financial arrangements, and length of halves they may be able to agree upon.

In case of disagreement, the following rules shall hold: The teams shall divide equally the net losses or the net receipts of the game. The place of the contest shall be determined by lot.

Flip Coin
In case no other arrangement for taking a lot be agreed upon, the chairman, when so notified, will flip a coin in the presence of three witnesses and notify the schools of the decision. The length of halves unless otherwise agreed upon, shall be twenty-five minutes. If officials can not be agreed upon an arbitrator shall be agreed upon, who shall appoint outside officials. Any school refusing to play a game scheduled under the conditions provided shall forfeit the game to the opposing team.

In the case of a tie in the semi-final the referee shall determine by lot in the presence of both teams which school may enter the final.

In case of a tie in the final the championship honors shall be held equally by both teams.

CUT BOTH WRISTS BLED TO DEATH

Edward Hummel Tried To End Life A Week Ago. Finally Successful.

The town of Koshkonong farmer, Edward Hummel, who recently tried to commit suicide after reading an account of self-inflicted death by a man in a Milwaukee beer garden, has succeeded in ending his life. He had been taken to the Jefferson jail, pending an examination as to his sanity and was found Tuesday morning lying in a pool of blood with the arteries of both wrists severed. On the floor beside him was a pocket knife, the instrument with which he had ended his life. Hummel formerly lived on a farm north of this city and was well known in Rock county.

TEN EMPLOYEES AT DAM STRIKE

ASK FOR AN INCREASE IN THEIR WAGES.

DEMAND PROMPTLY REFUSED

And Reduced Crew Continue Work
Without Further Demonstration—
Claim Wage Scale is Unfair.

Ten men in the employ of the cement contractor who is laying the foundations for the Janesville Contracting Co.'s new power plant, struck for higher wages this forenoon. All but one of these men were members of the crew at work unloading gravel and cement from the cars and mixing the same on the bank. The other man was one of the half submerged crew that is laying the sacks down in "the hole."

Discrimination Alleged

The work in the water is not the pleasantest in the world on cold days like this. The "diver" who struck was laboring with four others who were getting $2.50 a day, while he was only receiving $1.80. He asked for the same compensation the others were receiving. Labor is so divided on the bank that some men have very little to do, while others are busy with their wheelbarrows every moment of the time. Yet all receive the same wages—$1.80 a day. The nine men who quit work claimed that they were entitled to more compensation than their fellows because their work was harder. They asked for $2.00.

Demands Refused

The demands of all were refused and the men departed. The thirty remaining workers were reorganized in a few moments and the work proceeded without further interruption. One new man was hired this afternoon.

An abnormal appetite for chewing tobacco is alleged to have taken possession of "Hank" Carlson yesterday and he is charged with wilfully purloining from the Fountain House, without the remotest intent to pay for the same, a plug worth thirty cents—or at least sold for that price. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police Hogan and is languishing in the bastille. Carlson is an old offender and it is reported that there are some other "irregularities" behind his arrest.

VARSITY TRIES PRACTICE KICKS

University Team Is Making Every Effort to Defeat Michigan
November 14.

The football practice at Madison Wednesday afternoon was a punting duel between the varsity and second teams, in which the first team came out ahead, but the kicking on neither side was encouraging. Capt. Abbott, who did most of the work for the varsity, got his punts away better and for better distances than did Perry or Findlay, who were also given trials in the kicking game.

With the exception of Bain, Fogg, and Chamberlain, all the regulars were in the lineup in the varsity and held out through the entire practice, which lasted about half an hour. The fluid gathering about Bain's knees has begun to bother him again and he is now worse than before the Chicago game. Physicians say that in order to recover from it he must abstain from practice entirely, and it now looks doubtful for the big half-back's chances of getting in shape for the Michigan game, held two weeks away.

Chamberlain was kept out of the work by a bruised leg muscle, which, however, is not at all serious. Fogg was kept on the sidelines because Trainer O'Dea thinks it not advisable that he be given as much hard work as some of the other members of the team.

The scrubs, reinforced by Schrollberg, left guard on the 1901 varsity and Lerrum, right guard last year, while not able to block any varsity punts, held the regulars down well when it came to straight football and allowed but one touchdown.

The backfield positions on the varsity were filled by Vanderboom, Perry, and Robinson, while Clarke, Scofield, and Franzke were the backs for the second team. Scofield did especially good work in advancing the ball for the second team, and at present is one of the most promising candidates for the fullback position because of his speed and weight.

MYERS HOUSE IS TO BE REMODELED

AN OPTION IS HELD ON THE HOTEL PROPERTY.

WOULD SPEND MUCH MONEY

Three Business Men Are to Buy Property and Then Make Extensive Alterations.

On good authority it is understood that an option has been secured on the property known as the Myers Hotel by C. S. Jackman, R. M. Hostwick and Michael Mayer, which holds until the 26th of the present month. If the deal is consummated the price paid to the Myers estate will be in the neighborhood of forty thousand dollars and the sale will include the property at the northeast corner of Main and Milwaukee streets on Main street as far south as the store occupied by John Myers and north on Milwaukee street as far as the building occupied by the Frick Publishing company.

Architect Coming
It is also understood that a prominent Chicago architect has been engaged to come to Janesville to make estimates on a complete renovation of the entire building from top to bottom and placing it in first class repair. It is said that thirty-five thousand dollars will be expended in this, and that when completed it will be the finest hotel in southern Wisconsin, outside of Milwaukee.

Many Repairs.
The repairs now contemplated would mean a complete change in the hotel with steam heat, bath rooms, electric lights throughout, new elevator, modern sample rooms, a new office and the conveniences of an up-to-date structure. The Myers has had in the past a national reputation as a hotel among the knights of the grip and with many changes contemplated actually completed it would once more hold the lead of all the hotels in southern Wisconsin. If the deal is closed it is understood work will be begun this fall.

Deputy Sheriff Wallace Cochrane went to Lima this morning.

Pasteurized Milk

People not familiar with the process of pasteurizing sometimes confound it with sterilizing, but the two differ materially. Sterilization requires a much greater application of heat without the rapid cooling process, and this so changes the chemical conditions as to render the milk indigestible for many people, especially for infants, besides making it unpalatable.

Pasteurized milk and cream possess all their natural elements, the chemical condition and flavor remaining unchanged. All disease germs, such as tuberculosis, typhoid, diphtheria, certain intestinal diseases of children, and many others of which milk is so free a conveyor are eliminated, making it a safe and proper food for infants, invalids and all classes.

Pasteurization is a process due to the researches of a great French scientist, Louis Pasteur, who first employed it and from whom comes the name by which it is known. The process consists in heating milk to a 165 degrees Fahrenheit temperature at which temperature it is held for a few seconds only. It is then immediately cooled, almost to the freezing point. The later step is quite as essential as is that of heating, the milk undergoing a change of 110 degrees temperature within ten seconds. It is this sudden heating and cooling process that kills the germ life deleterious to health.

Amateur Billiards,

An International Tournament Is Now Under Way.

Amateur billiard players have begun to beat themselves, and the inertia that was so prevalent last season has given place to greater activity than is usually the case so early in the season.

This idea of bringing the foremost players of various nations into a single tournament seems to have at last taken definite shape, and before the season is on the wane American, French and Belgian experts with the cue will probably begin a series of matches for an amateur world's championship. For several weeks there has been much work done toward bringing this about by New York billiard room keepers of the experience and influence of Maurice Daly and Frank A. Keeney. They have been urging that steps be taken to induce Kerolle and Rasquet, first and second winners in the last spring's Paris tournament for the championship of France and Belgium, to come here as competitors of ex-Champion Martin Mullon of Chicago and Wilson P. Foss, present amateur champion of America. These Americans are respectively the winners of the two successive class A championships at fourteen inch ball line, two shots in ball, instituted in 1899 and 1900 by the Amateur Athletic union. Such a meeting as is now being promoted would undoubtedly arouse as marked interest as that in 1899, in which Martin Mullon, Wilson P. Foss and Wayman McCrery competed with out the accompaniment of any dead wood.

WILSON P. FOSS, FAMOUS AMATEUR.

That only players of such caliber as Mullen and Foss stand any chance in such a tournament as is in prospect may be indicated by the fact that the Frenchman, Kerolle, finished one of his matches in the French and Belgium championship with an average of 36 for a string that is reported to have been of 500 points. This is a bit of cue work that is without parallel in tournament play among amateurs in America. Probably Kerolle would find it a difficult feat to repeat this average, especially against such masters at safety play as both Mullen and Foss have demonstrated themselves to be.

COLLEGE GOLF CHAMPION.

Frank O. Reinhart of Princeton and His Career.

Frank O. Reinhart, the new champion of the Intercollegiate Golf association, is only twenty years old, and yet, notwithstanding his youth, has accomplished feats on the links that rank him with the national leaders.

Reinhart has twice defeated Walter J. Travis, the present amateur champion, has been runner up in the national amateur tournament and has captured many club championships as well as dozens of medals for victories of lesser importance. Clearly Reinhart, who, as is well known, is a student at Princeton university, will be a dangerous man in coming national contests.

Reinhart won the intercollegiate title by defeating W. C. Chick of Harvard

FRANK O. REINHART.

In the finals at the Garden City (N. Y.) Golf club. One of the sensations of the match was the defeat by Reinhart of H. Chandler Egan, the Chicago star, who is now champion of Harvard.

Reinhart won the championship of Princeton during his first year in the university.

HANDLE BILLIONS OF LETTERS

Railway Postal Clerks Care for 15,999,802,630 Pieces of Mail.

Washington, Nov. 5.—W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general, has submitted his annual report to the postmaster general. It shows that the annual rate of expenditure for all classes of mail transportation service in this country is $63,544,542, and that the rate of cost per mile traveled is $12.89. There are 1,400 lines of traveling postoffices, railroad, steamboat and electric car, covering 159,298 miles, with 10,555 employees. It is estimated that the railway postal clerks handled during the year 15,999,802,630 pieces of mail matter, exclusive of registered matter, and 1,387,664 errors were reported in their distribution, a ratio of one error to 11,570 correct distributions. There were 509,527,962 pounds of paid second-class matter received from publishers, and 36,305,884 pounds carried within the county of publication free of charge, making an aggregate of 272,921 tons.

BLAMES WHITES FOR TROUBLE

Indian Agent Says the Settlers Started the Wyoming Affair.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The commissioner of Indian affairs has received the following telegram from Indian Agent Brennan, who is at Newcastle, Wyo.:

"Report of Indian trouble here exaggerated. From best information at hand thirty-five miles north of Lusk a fight occurred between officers and some twenty Indians, some of them from Pine Ridge. Seven Indians, including one squaw, killed; also sheriff and one deputy. About ten Indian families under arrest here. In my opinion, a mistake was made in precipitating the fight."

The Indian office sympathizes with the view that the whites were the aggressors and will recommend to Secretary Hitchcock that he ask the attorney general to have the affair investigated.

ST. LOUIS MAYOR COLLAPSES

Mr. Wells Fall Unconscious in Front of the City Hall.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Mayor Wells was seized with vertigo while conversing with a friend in front of the city hall and fell unconscious to the sidewalk. He was carried into the dispensary and given medical attention. He regained consciousness in a few minutes and was driven home. No serious results are apprehended.

UNION ISSUE MAY BRING CLASH

Governor Durbin May Be Asked to Send Troops to Indiana Mine.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 5.—A serious situation has developed at Caledonia, a mining town of Sullivan county, over the employment of a number of nonunion carpenters and bloodshed is feared. Some time ago the Rahmbo Coal Mining company brought carpenters here from Robinson, Ill., to do some work. The miners learned that they were not union men and they were ordered away. The mine owners protested, and on Monday they were brought back and resumed work. The miners then called a mass meeting, and the carpenters were again ordered away and were given to understand that a refusal to go would be followed by force. The outlook has become so threatening that the local authorities have been asked to notify Governor Durbin of the situation and to ask for troops.

MRS. ROBERT INGERSOLL IN SUIT

Agnostic's Widow Asks $95,000 as Fees in Davis Will Case.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 5.—An interesting case in the United States circuit court is that of the bill of Mrs. Eva Ingersoll of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., widow of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, to establish an attorney's lien for $95,000 for services performed by Ingersoll as counsel for the contestants in the celebrated contest of the will of Andrew J. Davis, the Montana copper king. The contestants claim that Ingersoll's contract was conditional upon his defeat of the Davis will and the acquirement by the contestants of their share of the estate. Neither of these conditions, they claimed, was fulfilled. Decision in the case was reserved by Judge Putnam.

SECURES VOTE WITH SHOTGUN

Denver Elector Overawes Judges Who Refuse His Ballot at Polls.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 5.—R. M. Johnson, a Republican voter, has the distinction of recording his vote with the aid of a shotgun in spite of alleged Democratic intimidation. His ballot had been refused, but he returned to the poll with a gun and told the judges and clerks he was there to exercise his rights and would do so. He voted and remained all day to see that every registered citizen of his precinct secured justice.

INSISTS ON DOING HIS DUTY

Springfield City Attorney Ignores Order of the Council.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 5.—City Attorney Fitzgerald showed his determination to prosecute the 112 civil suits commenced by him for violation of the gambling ordinance when he ignored the order of the city council directing him to dismiss the suits and contested a motion to that effect made in the circuit court.

End of Slavery in Islands.

Manila, Nov. 5.—The Philippine commission has confirmed the anti-slavery law passed by the legislature council of the Moro provinces Oct. 5. The law prohibits slave hunting in all the Moro territory and provides for the confiscation of all vessels engaged in the slave traffic.

"Making a New Play for Sarah Bernhardt"

IN these progressive days, when actors and actresses are carefully measured by dramatists engaged to cut out plays for them, the task of fitting a play to a woman like Sarah Bernhardt would be a tolerably difficult matter, notwithstanding the artistic semblance attainable in the "fitting" system. She is the sort of woman who requires what the milliners, in their most exuberant moods, call "a creation."

Talents can be measured to order, and personality is a dominating feature of the stage; but there is a psychology in the character of genius that cannot be arranged for mechanically before hand.

It was an indisputable distinction that fell upon

F. Marion Crawford

when he was asked, two years ago, by the great tragedienne, to write a play for her.

Rockford Official Is Stricken. Rockford, Ill., Nov. 5.—Charles W. Ferguson, corporation counsel of Rockford and prominent in Democratic politics, was stricken in his office with intestinal perforation. He was operated on by Dr. Van Hook of Chicago and his condition is regarded as very critical, but little hope of recovery.

Many Football Topics

Career and Success of Coach Yost of the University of Michigan: Nichols, Harvard's Brilliant Half Back: Rockwell, Yale Quarter.

The most famous football coach the west has ever had is Fielding Harris Yost of the University of Michigan, who is known as "Hurricane Yost," because of the rapid style of play which he trains. This really wonderful teacher of the game of the gridiron has confined his operations to the west, but next year, it is said, he will be in charge of an eastern team.

In six years' coaching Yost has a record of having developed five champion teams. Here is his list of winners:

1898—University of Nebraska, champions Transmissouri association.

1899—Kansas university, champions Transmissouri association.

1900—Stanford university, champions of California.

1901—University of Michigan, champions of the west.

1902—University of Michigan, champions of the west.

Yost began his football career at West Virginia university in 1894. He played there in 1895, and in 1896 went to Lafayette, where he played tackle next to Reinhardt, who was guard on the team which beat Pennsylvania 6 to 4. In 1897 he went to Ohio Wesleyan and coached the team successfully. From there he went to Nebraska, where he made a championship team in 1898. The next year, 1899, he took charge of the Kansas team and beat Nebraska and other colleges.

Leland Stanford recruited Yost for 1900, and he developed a team which won the California championship. Professional coaches were dispensed with that winter, and in 1901 Charles Baird, athletic director at Michigan, employed Yost. It has been at Michigan that he has won his greatest renown.

Yost's first year at Michigan was an epoch in western football. He developed a team that scored a total of 650 points, while its own goal was never seriously threatened. It was a record unequalled in football annals. The next year, 1902, he almost duplicated the preceding year's record, for his team scored 644 points, while opposing eleven scored twelve points.

This year Yost has had his hardest problem. Seven of his best men of last year graduated and left only four veterans as a nucleus for a team. But with such a hard task before him it appears Yost has accomplished it.

Yost's home is in Clarkburg, W. Va. He is very popular at Ann Arbor. His contract runs until the end of 1904, but flattering offers from the east have been made to him. If he leaves there, Michigan will probably return to the graduate coach system.

J. D. Nichols, the left half back of the strong Harvard varsity eleven, is one of the football "finds" of the year. He showed up excellently in practice, and the crimson coaches determined to "try him out." Nichols did splendid work in the early games and placed himself on a high pinnacle in the game against Brown university held on Soldiers' field, Cambridge. In this contest Nichols was the star of the day and made the longest run ever recorded at Cambridge, a spurt of 105 yards, through the entire Brown team, for a touchdown. Nichols will prove a valuable man against Yale when these two famous rivals meet.

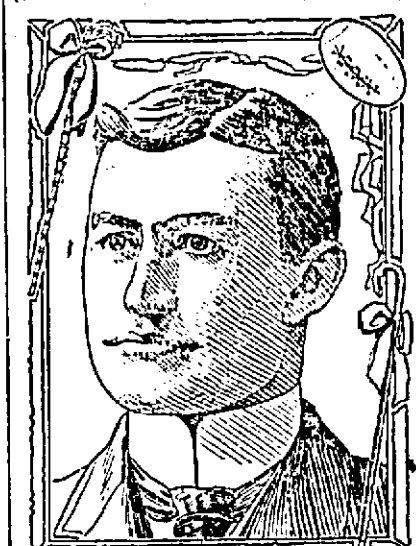

Rockwell, the dashing little Yale quarter back, is probably the ablest player in his position in the college world. He is considered a worthy successor to Charley De Saullies, Johnnie De Saullies and Ely of years past. The equal of Charley De Saullies, however, will probably not be seen at Yale or in any other college in many days. Rockwell runs the Yale team with good judgment and is in every play.

In an interesting article recently on football past and present Charley Chadwick, the former star Yale player, contrasted old time and modern gridiron methods and also spoke entertainingly on various phases of the sport. Among other things Chadwick said:

"The number of star back field players who have made their appearance in the quarter of a century since football became a feature in the American college and the tale of their deeds would fill a volume.

"Most of them are practically forgotten because of the always existing tendency to exaggerate the relative importance of the present. The Yale team of 1902 is now regarded as the best team that ever lined up. Indeed, I am of the opinion that, playing under any set of Rugby rules which allowed interference in front of the runner, this team could have beaten any other in the history of the game, including even Gordon Brown's famous Yale 1900 team. But suppose that Sharpe in the Yale-Harvard game of 1900 or De Witt in the Yale-Princeton game of 1902, instead of kicking one twenty-five or one fifty yard drop goal, had either of them made five attempts in the second half, missing one try with the left foot, but sending the other four over the bar from all parts of the field, the last one being made from the forty-seven yard line after dodging a tackler, the thousands of spectators would have been almost too amazed to cheer.

"Yet this remarkable performance actually occurred in the second half of the Princeton-Harvard game of 1882, when Alce Moffat, the now famous coach, played full back for Princeton. Likewise the few hundred people who watched this game in 1882 would have held their breath to see Moffat keep his feet for ten yards in a tackle back formation.

"The truth is that for the last ten or fifteen years the efficiency of the line has been developed somewhat at the expense of spectacular work in the back field. The offensive and defensive rushing game of today is something that was not dreamed of years ago, and the remarkable Yale eleven of last year practically consisted of eleven star line-men brought up to a wonderful standard of efficiency in the rushing game."

West Point's Eleven.
West Point has nearly as strong a football team as last season, although the loss of the big tackle, Bunker, is felt. Of last season's players there are still Captain Farnsworth, end; Hammond, half back; Graves, guard; Torrey, full back; Riley, guard; Hackett, half back, and Thompson, tackle.

Another "Rising" Charge.
J. W. Horton, a Canadian horseman, was arrested recently at Millersburg, O., charged with ringing McGregor, 2:15 1/4, as Colonel Wood.

THANKSGIVING POETRY

BACK to the home of childhood,
Though scattered far and wide,
Back to the dear old kitchen—
Yes, back to your mother's side.
Come, kiss her wrinkled forehead,
Her hair, as white as snow,
And sit down on her footstool,
As in the long ago.

While father bends above you,
Weak with the weight of years,
His trembling voice with gladness,
His dim eyes filled with tears.
To both the greatest pleasure,
The year brings on its way
Is this! The glad homecoming
Upon Thanksgiving day.

Once more the rooms re-echo
From kitchen, stairs and hall,
The sound of old time voices
And merry dinner call.
While many sweet grandchildren,
With laughter light and gay,
Come pressing round the table
This glad Thanksgiving day.

THE GLAD HOMECOMING.
So come, ye sons and daughters,
From restless city streets,
Come ere you lose your relish
For the quiet joys of life;
Come back, ye roving children,
From prairies far and wide
And cluster round the hearthstone
Once more at eventide.

Take up your song of childhood
And sing it o'er again;
Forget that ye are matrons
Or business loving men,
And if your eyes grow misty
Rejoice that it is so;
A heart sincerely tender
Is the purest one to know.

Remember, with your loved ones
Life's lamp doth feebly burn;
Your parents may not linger
To greet a late return.
Forget them not, though patient;
Oh, come now, while you may!
Traine God's rejoice together
On this Thanksgiving day.
—Good Housekeeping.

Sollingny of a Turkey.
I know that Thanksgiving day's most
here,
And it makes me long to fly,
For I've reached my prime, and it's mighty clear
That it's time for me to die.

I saw the head of the house come out,
And he smiled as he gazed at me,
And he cried aloud that there was no doubt
What a comfortable meal I'd be.

Oh, I've got to go! And it gives me a fit,
Though it isn't so much for my life
That I care about, but he can't carve a bit.
And I've got to be hacked by his wife.
—New York Herald.

Sad Time For Them.
Or what are the turkeys thinking
Out yonder in the yard,
With their red eyes still blinking?
Do they think their fate is hard?
Are they on life reflecting
And to hear their final call
Each moment now expecting
No; turkeys don't think at all.

Thanksgiving Trust.
Lord, I give thanks!
Last year, thou knowest, my best ambitions failed.
My back with scourgings of defeat was battered;
My eyes felt oft the sharp salt wash of tears;
No guerdon blessed the tireless toil of years;
Fast in the snares my helpless feet were tied.
Yet in my woes thou didst with me abide.
Lord, I give thanks!
—Susie M. Best in Lippincott's.

His Preference.
"What portion of the fowl do you prefer?"
"Oh, anything but the Napoleon, sir!"
"What do you mean?" asked Carver, with a start.
"I mean I do not want the bony part."
—Detroit Free Press.

An Unknown Quantity.
She searched through the lexicon once
and again,
And her face wore sad lines of misgiv-
ing.
"I was seeking," she said, "with an accent
of pain,
"The Spanish for our word 'Thanksgiving.'"
—Boston Journal.

Not in a Good Set.
"No," exclaimed the mother turkey,
"I would prefer my children not to associate with those incubator chicks."
"Because they are so heedless and don't know how to feather their own nests?" inquired the duck.

"No, it isn't that so much I have brooded over," replied the turkey, "but there's something so artificial about them."
However, when the incubator chicks heard this they thought of the funeral baked meats of Thanksgiving and remarked significantly, "Death leaveth all ranks."—New York Journal.

SCOTLAND AND SCOTCHMEN

By Wallace, Bruce at Congregational Church Under Caledonian Club.
The noted Scotch lecturer and traveler, Hon. Wallace, Bruce has consented to give an address in this city under the auspices of the Caledonian society. The entertainment will be given at the Congregational church on Tuesday evening, November 17. Mr. Bruce has won fame as an entertainer and lecturer and has travelled extensively. The entertainment planned is out of the ordinary and should be well patronized.

CHURCH SUPPER SUCCESSFUL

Rev. Denison Speaks on Tennyson and Address Proves Interesting.
The ladies of the Congregational church gave a delightful supper evening in the church parlors and there was a goodly attendance of the congregation and friends of the church who partook of the bountiful chicken-pie repast. After the supper the Rev. Denison gave an interesting lecture on Tennyson in the Sunday school room.

SULLIVAN AS HOTEL MAN

Former Bower City Resident May
Run Rockford Hostelry.
There is a report in the Forest
City that the Sullivan block, which was formerly the Perry and Lake block, located at the corner of East street, State and North Second, is going to be remodeled and converted into a hotel which will be fitted out with all modern conveniences and which will improve the corner as a business center. Mr. Sullivan, formerly living in this city, is well known here.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Williams have left for Washington, D. C., where they will remain during the winter months.

W. S. Guilford, live stock editor for the Wisconsin Agriculturist, was here to attend the Little sale yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fawcett entertained about thirty of their friends at an informal party last evening at their home on North Bluff street. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

A party consisting of Messrs. Blach-ard and H. J. Owen of Janesville and three physicians from Oconomowoc will leave next Monday for a two weeks deer-hunting expedition in northern Wisconsin, near Hurley.

Of Mutual Advantage

We want to impress upon you this fundamental fact. Every dollar you spend over our counters is spent to our mutual advantage. A modest, reasonable and just profit is ours. To you belongs the satisfaction of knowing that you are buying the best merchandise that the price can produce. Often yes, very often, we get an opportunity to purchase strictly first-class goods at much below their normal value. These trade turns are much to your advantage. No matter how little we pay, we exact only the modest profit — the saving we feel belongs to you.

Suits, Suits, Ladies Suits.

A great cut in all ready-made suits to make room for the cloak and fur stock. If in need of anything in this line don't fail to look our stock over. Our line of $5.00 suits are values that you will never find again. The former prices ranged from $12.00 to $25.00. Your choice for $5.00.

Winter Underwear

A complete line of the famous Munsing for Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses and Children, both in Union Suits and separate garments. For Gentlemen, the double shield fleeced garment, the best value in the market for 50 cents.

Dress Goods and Silks

All the new up-to-date suitings, zibeline effects, stammi'e twine cloths, in fact an assortment not to be found outside of the larger cities. When you think of a town of 15,000 inhabitants, it is really surprising and an eye opener to many to find such a stock to select from. In silk we carry all the late novelties, and scarcely a rainbow shade that cannot be found in our shelves.

Our Upholstery Department

eclipses any previous years. There can be found all the oriental novelties so much sought after. A new line of grenadine stripe curtains, snow flake effects, and in yard goods, styles that are decidedly new in stripes in yellow, green, cardinal, old pink, blue etc. Just opened 50 pieces of stripe, floral effect and oriental drapery silks. A finer line never shown in Southern Wisconsin. New satin stripe poplins for draperies and sofa pillows. Call and see them.
